

INJURED WORKERS LAW FIRM

Meet Your Legal Team

Tara Duck

Director of Happiness

receptionist@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

When you call Injured Workers' Law Firm, or visit our office, the receptionist's friendly voice will likely be the first one you hear. Our receptionist works closely with clients to ensure their questions are answered and schedules appointments.

Keyri Hill

Legal Assistant

khill@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Keyri opens new files, requests medical records, submits mileage reimbursements, follows up on late checks, processes cost of living adjustments, calls clients for medical and work status updates, and helps to keep clients informed as to what is going on with their case.

Bryan Cuenca

Legal Assistant

bcuenca@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Bryan opens new files, requests medical records, submits mileage reimbursements, follows up on late checks, processes cost of living adjustments, calls clients for medical and work status updates, and helps to keep clients informed as to what is going on with their case.

Jenny Largaespada

Legal Assistant

jlargaespada@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Jenny opens new files, requests medical records, submits mileage reimbursements, follows up on late checks, processes cost of living adjustments, calls clients for medical and work status updates, and helps to keep clients informed as to what is going on with their case.

Gerlie Kemmerling

Medical Records Specialist

gkemmerling@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Gerlie manages incoming client medical records by organizing and bookmarking them electronically in our system to ensure easy access. She also files client's medical records with the Commission when necessary.

Romella Salcedo

Medical Records Specialist

rsalcedo@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Romella requests, follows up, and maintains client medical records to make sure we have the most updated medical records in our file for our clients. She also is trained in working with our clients to gather medical records from their medical provider's portal when possible.

Sheena Rahman

Intake Director

srahman@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Sheena is the Director of our Intake Department and Intake Team to ensure that they are educating potential clients on the workers' compensation system and following up with them to help them identify their needs or when they may need the assistance of an experienced attorney.

Renee Williams

Intake Specialist

rwilliams@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Renee handles our intakes and is a primary contact for potential new clients. She assists in educating clients on the workers' compensation system and following up with them to help them identify when they may need the assistance of an experienced attorney.

Marcia Galvez

Intake Specialist

mgalvez@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Marcia handles our intakes and is a primary contact for potential new clients. She assists in educating clients on the workers' compensation system and following up with them to help them identify when they may need the assistance of an experienced attorney.

Aylin Cobarruvias

Intake Specialist

acobarruvias@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Aylin handles our intakes and is a primary contact for potential new clients. She assists in educating clients on the workers' compensation system and following up with them to help them identify when they may need the assistance of an experienced attorney.

Sarah Busch

Marketing Director

sbusch@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Sarah is the Director of our Marketing Department. She maintains and establishes referral relationships, manages our social media platforms and website, and creates marketing initiatives to help our community know where to come to for help if they have been injured on the job.

Amy Atkinson

Paralegal/Intake Specialist

aatkinson@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Amy is trained in workers' compensation matters and will prepare your file for hearings, prepare settlement demands, answer questions and help keep you informed as to what is going on with your case.

She also handles our intakes and is a primary contact for potential new clients. She assists in educating clients on the workers' compensation system and following up with them to help them identify when they may need the assistance of an experienced attorney.

Stephanie Wilkins

Paralegal

swilkins@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Stephanie is trained in workers' compensation matters and will prepare your file for hearings, prepare settlement demands, answer questions and help keep you informed as to what is going on with your case.

Kelly Torres-Gonzalez

Paralegal

kgonzalez@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Kelly is trained in workers' compensation matters and will prepare your file for hearings, prepare settlement demands, answer questions and help keep you informed as to what is going on with your case.

Reynaldo Cruz

Paralegal

rcruz@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Reynaldo is trained in workers' compensation matters and will prepare your file for hearings, prepare settlement demands, answer questions and help keep you informed as to what is going on with your case.

Luis Canseco-Lopez

Paralegal

lcansecolopez@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Luis is trained in workers' compensation matters and will prepare your file for hearings, prepare settlement demands, answer questions and help keep you informed as to what is going on with your case.

Michele S. Lewane, Esq.

Founder/Attorney at Law

mlewane@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Attorney Lewane graduated from T.C. Williams School of Law in 1989 and in 1990 she began representing injured workers against insurance companies while working with Hubbard, Samuels & Lewane. In 2007 Michele founded Injured Workers' Law Firm making the sole purpose of her practice to assist injured workers in receiving the benefits they are entitled to under Virginia Law. Ms. Lewane has a passion for educating injured workers and helping them to navigate through the workers' compensation system while maximizing their benefits.

Christian Kline, Esq.

Attorney at Law

ckline@injuredworkerslawfirm.com

Attorney Kline graduated from Regent University School of Law and joined the team here at Injured Workers' Law Firm. Christian is excited to represent injured workers in Virginia and brings a great deal of energy and determination in order to help our clients.

Our entire staff is friendly, helpful, and always ready to assist our clients with any needs they may have. Please feel free to contact us with any of your questions or concerns!

"Advocates for injured workers across Virginia"

Phone (804) 755-7755

Injuredworkerslawfirm.com